COLORS FLYING

Colors flying, Teams are vying,
Red and white our colors are (rah rah rah)
Voices ringing, shouting singing,
Send a cheer up to the sky (rah rah rah)
Win or lose we still will choose our school,
And ever loyal be (rah rah rah),
Win or lose, our team is
Out to gain a VICTORY.

CLASS PUN

On August 21, 1948, Donna and I decided to attend the World's Fair, which was to be held in New York City. As we were making our plans Donna asked, "WIL-MA go along?" "SHIRLEY not," I promptly responded, "but she approves of my going."

When we left Cleveland airport at 2:30 P.M., the weather was ideal for flying. About an hour and a half after we took off, the sky became dark. I mentioned to Donna that a storm was coming up. Scarcely had I said it when a strong GALE of wind forced the plane to take a nose dive. This frightened us very much. Other than this one incident, our trip was very enjoyable, however.

When we got off the plane at La Guardia Field, we hailed a taxi and went to the MAYFLOWER hotel to freshen up for dinner. The main course of the meat was FRIED frog legs, which neither of us liked.

After dinner we immediately went to the fair grounds. The first booth that caught our eye was "Hercules, the Sword Thrower" who was PEARCEing his partner.

We then left this gruesome side show to take in another one, where we saw a woman pounding ORE-WhILe-hER partner handed out souvenirs. Finally we left to take in the rest of the midway. We rode on all the amusements.

While on the ferris wheel, we gazed below at all the merrymakers. When Donna rocked the seat, I gave one great kick and awakened from my dream to find that I had broken my toe. After summoning the doctor, he informed me that a MAGER operation was necessary.

Naomi Magers

CLASS WILL

Shirley Amstutz wishes to will her good grades to Barbara Pfleiderer.
Elwood Fried wills his athletic ability to Ben Burky.
John Pearce wills his quietness to Charles Magers.
Naomi Magers would like Carole Klein to have her good looks.
To Philip Crouse, Wilma Jane Kessler wills her soprano voice.
Marilyn May wills her position of playing the piano for Glee Club to Leona Stump.
Gale Norris wills his cheerleading ability to Marlin Cole.
Marlene Pope will be willed Donna Orewiler's natural curly hair.

The Senior Class wills its size to the seventh grade. We also will our teacher to any class that will take good care of her.

Marilyn May

CLASS POEM

Miss Tiro "47" was Marilyn May,
She has a great future to that you may lay.

Wilma Kessler, is going to college next fall,
She'll be a grade teacher, and loves children all.

Elwood Fried, loves all sports, especially ball,
The best on the team, without him we'd fall.

Naomi Magers, a student with aim,
Very often is found at a basketball game.

John Pearce is tall dark and a right nice guy,
Although they like him from girls he'll shy.

Donna Orewiler I hear sure does get around,
At night, people say, she can never be found.

Shirley Amstutz, the homemaker of our class,
In her Home Ec. we hope she will pass.

Gale Norris worked on this with most of his time.
And it certainly does sound it for the words don't rhyme.

OUR IDEAL GIRL

Our ideal girl would have these features--the height of Donna Orewiler, weight of Wilma Kessler, length and color of Shirley Amstutz's hair, and the natural curl of Donna Orewiler's hair. She also would have the pleasing voice of Marilyn May, personality of Shirley Amstutz, singing ability of Wilma Kessler, hands of Naomi Magers, dating ability of Donna Orewiler, complexion of Marilyn May, winning smile of Shirley Amstutz, Marilyn's ability to play the piano, Naomi's ability to cook, Wilma's sports ability, Donna's eyes, Wilma's teeth, Naomi's teasing ability, and Shirley's laugh together with the longing friendship of Naomi Magers, the grades of Wilma Kessler, the figure of Shirley Amstutz, the neatness of Donna Orewiler, and the good nature of Naomi Magers. Last but not least, she would have the kindness charm, and grace which every Senior girl possesses.

OUR IDEAL BOY

If we, the senior girls, were to pick boys with outstanding virtues, it would be the senior boys of "48"!

Our ideal boy would have these features--the height, smile and sense of humor of Elwood Fried, the build and hair of John Pearce, and the eyes and laugh of Gale Norris.

Our ideal boy would not be complete without the bashfulness of all three, the basketball ability of Elwood and John, Gale's ability to play the piano and cheerlead, the farming ability and knowledge of Elwood and John, and the scholastic ability of Gale.

Last but not least, he would possess the personality and good habits of all three boys.

CLASS HISTORY

September, 1936, twenty shy little boys and girls met for the first time to get acquainted and make friends. The class roll contained the following: Dicky Clark, Gale Norris, Bob Carle, Elwood Fried, Glenn Swanger, Junior Reinbolt, Joyce Sief, Shirley Amstutz, Joane Cleland, Wilma Kessler, Doris Rank, Marilyn May, Keith Clawson, Pauline Buskirk, Naomi Magers, Donna Orewiler, Margaret Wood, Mary Buck, Mildred Nickleson, and Georgene Bruce.

As we traveled along we gained new ones and lost old ones. In the second grade we gained Sylvester Shell, and lost Dicky Clark and Ruth Bevier who was promoted up one grade. Our teacher was Miss McMahan. In the third grade we lost Pauline Buskirk and gained Helen Shively and Ronald Craven. Our teacher was Miss Matthews. Also in the third grade we went to Shelby to see the show "Tom Sawyer." We also visited the Crestline library. The fourth year we gained Charles and Rita Dangles, Claude and Bertha Ball, Mary Kathryn Fox and Mrs. Farell was our teacher.

In the fifth grade our class was divided, part of us were in with the fourth and rest in with the sixth grade. Miss Creau and Mrs. Neal were our teachers. We gained Glenna Burkett and lost Joane Cleland, Ronald Craven, Helen Shively, Mary Buck, Keith Clawson, Mary Kathryn Fox, and Bertha and Claude Ball.

In the sixth grade we gained Bob Hopkins and Edward Gamble, and lost Glenna Burkett. Our teacher was Mrs. Stone.

In 1942 we really began to grow up. At least that was what we thought, for eleven of us were occupying the south side of the Junior High room. Miss Lynn was our class adviser. We gained Avery Brown, John Pearce, Melba Graham, and lost Charles and Rita Dangles, Sylvester Shell, Bob Hopkins, and Edward Gamble.

Our eighth grade sponsor was Miss Baur and then Mrs. Miller. During the year we gained Lena Sipe and Mary Lou Poffenbaugh, and lost Avery Brown and Melba Graham.

In 1944 we started our first year of high school. Our enrollment consisted of Shirley Amstutz, Wilma Kessler, Elwood Fried, Gale Norris, John Pearce, Donna Orewiler, Mary Lou Poffenbaugh, Naomi Magers, Marilyn May, Lena Sipe, Doris Sheldon, Dorothy Gosser, Joyce Sief. During the year we lost Lena Sipe and Dorothy Gosser, and Miss Fleet was our Freshman sponsor.

During our Sophomore year we gave the annual High School Party and ordered our class rings. We took a hike to Sief's pasture field and stayed all day. For dinner we had a weiner roast. Also while we were Sophomores we fixed the Ag. room up with comical pictures of students and teachers to make a little money. The Junior year our class rings came. We gave our play "Moon Shy" on November 7. We entertained the seniors with the Annual Junior and Senior Prom here at the school building.

In our Senior year nine members started but we lost Mary Lou Poffenbaugh. Our graduation pictures were taken by Mr. De Vito. We chose our caps and gowns, the boys wore blue and the girls wore white. Our Senior play was "Here Goes the Groom". Baccalaureate service was held May 16 with Rev. Goedking as speaker. Commencement exercises were held May 20, with Harry L. Rahmann from Findlay as speaker.

DO YOU REMEMBER

1. When in the first grade, while jumping rope, we would jump off the desks when the rope became too high?
2. When Shirley Amstutz had bangs?
3. When Marilyn May took her school work too seriously?
4. When Mrs. Farrell made Naomi Magers stand in the hall?
5. When the teacher sent Marilyn and Wilma Jane with Ronald Craven to apoiogize for the tulip Ronald had stolen?
6. When Shirley had a crush on Edwin Pfahler?
7. When John actually took a girl home from the Junior-Senior Banquet?
8. When Wilma Jane Kessler started going with the "Dutchtown" boys?
9. When Naomi Magers was kicked by Norris' horse?
10. When Donna Orewiler had two dates in one night?
11. When John Pearce got a spanking his senior year?
12. The crush Elwood Fried had on Ruth Graham?
13. How good the baked beans and maraschino cherries tasted at Junior play practice?
14. What inspired Gale Norris to take piano lessons?
15. When Marilyn May and Wilma Jane Kessler blew up the school, while working in the lab?
16. Why Donna Orewiler was a good friend of Florence Auck during her senior year?
17. Why Naomi Magers was so nice to Gale Norris during their senior year?
18. What bashful boys we had in our class?
19. When John Pearce and Elwood Fried got in the ditch with Pearces' new car?
20. How glad the Juniors were to see us graduate?

CLASS PROPHECY

I, Shirley Amstutz, in the year 1958 holding the position of a Powers Model was asked to make a tour throughout the United States. The night before I was to leave on my tour I attended a party in the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. The evenings entertainment was provided by the Philharmonic Orchestra. To my surprise I found that my fellow classmate from Tiro High, Gale Norris, was playing the piano with the orchestra.

I started on my journey, my first stop was Chicago where I met Wilma Jane who is now teaching after finishing her college training at Ohio State. In the evenings she sings at the Ring Side Night Club for extra spending money.

Through Wilma Jane I was informed that Naomi was also in Chicago holding the position as private secretary to Silas Grezdale, the famous criminal lawyer. Wilma Jane, Gale, and I decided to drop in on Naomi. We found her at the office where she is employed.

The next day I told my classmates that I had to proceed on my journey. I asked them to accompany me on my tour. They accepted.

Our next stop was Indiana where Naomi was taken ill, so we took her to a famous specialist, Doctor Weir. To our surprise we found none other than Marilyn May holding the position as receptionist for the doctor.

Marilyn was starting her vacation the next day so we invited her to travel with us.

From Indiana we started out to the west coast. We were on the train when we read in the paper that John Pearce and his professional basketball team were playing in Salt Lake City. We all decided to drop in on John and talk over the "good old days".

Upon arriving there, we found John at one of the big schools, When we had a chance to say a few words to him, he told us that he was leaving the next day for California. We told him that was where we were going so we decided to all travel together and renew some of our old memories.

When we started discussing some of the old times, we discovered that our whole class but Elwood and Donna were now altogether after all these years. John then told us that Elwood was also in Salt Lake City prize fighting, that he had participated in a fight two weeks before, and that perhaps he would travel on out to the coast with us for a vacation. After looking around for Elwood a half of day, we found him at the Steler Hotel where he was staying. He asked us to dine with him that evening, so we all dined together. After dinner that evening, we noticed a newspaper write-up telling that Donna had been chosen mother of the most typical American family. So we left the next morning via airplane to fly to Hollywood, California to visit Donna and her remarkable family.

During our stay with Donna and her little ones, we read in the Tiro World that there was to be a dedication of the new Empire State Building in the now large city of Tiro, Ohio, which has grown out to meet all the surrounding towns combining all into one large metropolis. We immediately got reservations for the next train leaving for Tiro.

After the dedication ceremony, we all went to the Ritz restaurant for our last lunch together. Looking across the booth, we recognized Mr. and Mrs. Hanline having lunch. We waved, they joined us, and we all had a wonderful time.

FAREWELL TO THE SENIORS

To The Seniors:

To say farewell, according to Webster, is either an act of taking leave, or is to say 'may you fare well.' It is the second definition that I have in mind when I say to you, the class of 1948, farewell.

The faculty and myself hope that as an educational institution, the school has been of help to you in beginning a more abundant life. We trust that your pleasant associations with the school will not cease upon graduation, but will continue as long as possible.

Upon graduation, you will acquire a new perspective of the school and of the society of which you are an important part. May you always be guided by the highest motives in your social and professional relationships, realizing each day the joy and satisfaction that such living brings.

Supt. Dale B. Kinney

We the Junior Class of 1948 in saying farewell to the Seniors wish you all good fortune and good luck that is possible.

We have had many good times with you during our school days together. We know that next year we will miss you and the building won't be the same without you.

You were only a small class but your presence in school has made it warm and cheery. So in saying farewell we again wish you many years of happiness and good fortune.

ACTIVITIES

F. H. A. PROGRAM

The officers for the Tiro chapter of F. H. A. are as follows: President, Naomi Magers; vice president, Wilma Jane Kessler; secretary, Shirley Amstutz; treasurer, Ruth Graham; reporter, Helen Fagan; parliamentarian, Betty Love; historian, Florence Auck; and song leader, Marilyn May.

The club adviser is Miss Whirledge and the club mother is Mrs. Tom Stump. The members of the club for 1947-1948 are as follows:

Shirley Amstutz, Marjorie Baker, Marilyn Crum, Barbara Gantzler, Ruth Graham, Carole Klein, Naomi Magers, Donna Orewiler, Patricia Pearce, Rose Steele, Wilma Stiving, Carolyn Poffenbaugh, Florence Auck, Betty Bevier, Marilyn May, Marlene Pope, Cordelia Schiefer, Leona Stump, Effie Zeigler, and Helen Fagan.

The club motto is "Toward New Horizons" and the club flower is the red rose. The colors are red and white. The theme for the year is "Building Today for Tomorrow".

At the first meeting of the year, the new members were initiated. They are Marilyn Crum, Carole Klein, Patricia Pearce, Wilma Stiving, Marlene Pope, and Effie Zeigler.

On November 4, 1947, we had an informal meeting. Everyone donated gifts to send to Europe. We packed boxes with the gifts and sent them to Europe for Christmas gifts to the people who were victims of the war. Each girl put her name on one of these gifts.

On December 16, 1947, the F. H. A. members and the F. F. A. members gave a banquet. The evening was filled by a large supper and then following the supper came a program. After the program, Mr. Clymer provided entertainment by showing slides on a camp for the F. H. A. boys. He also showed several other films on farm safety.

Our meeting on January 13 was postponed. On March 2, 1948 the problems of teen agers was our topic.

On April 13, 1948, Mrs. Knightlinger gave a talk.

Next year, the girls of the Future Homemakers of America are hoping for a bigger and better club.

F. F. A. PROGRAM

The officers for the F. F. A. for the season of 1947-1948 are as follows: President, Ross Eckstein; vice president, Elwood Fried; secretary, Marlin Cole; treasurer, John Pearce; reporter, Roger Smith; sentinel, Glen Burky.

The club adviser is Mr. R. D. Clymer, vocational Ag. teacher of Tiro and Sulphur Springs.

The members of the F. F. A. for the years 1947 and 48 are as follows.

Ross Eckstein, Marlin Cole, Glen Burky, Leland Stump, Albert Miller, John Pearce, Elwood Fried, Roger Smith, Howard Smith, James Magers, Gerald Haymond, Charles Stump and Floyd Frazee.

The green-hands are James, Howard, Charles, and Floyd.

In November the F. F. A. started their annual pest hunt that lasted until January 3, 1948.

In December, together with the F. H. A. girls, we held a banquet with our guest speaker Joy Lynn of Holmes-Liberty.

In January, 1948, the F. F. A. voted to build an implement trailer to be used by the F. F. A. boys and local farmers.

G. A. A.

This past year a new organization was formed. It is known as the G. A. A. or Girls Athletic Association. The organization was founded so we of Tiro High would have more interest in sports, better sportsmanship, and the wise use of leisure time.

As a reward, keys and T's will be given to the girls who have received the most points. To receive these points the girls must participate in all sports. The girls who are on the winning team or side will receive extra points. Everyone who is in Physical Education is qualified to be a member of the G. A. A. Any member that the Board (a body composed of the officers) finds guilty unworthy of the association will be penalized or expelled according to the decision of the board.

This year's officers are Betty Bevier, president; Wilma Jane Kessler, vice president; Leona Stump, recording secretary; Marjorie Baker, corresponding secretary; Naomi Fried, treasurer; and a board of representatives. These offices are chosen from the upper four classes by a majority vote. The term of office is one year.

The organization hopes to have a dance near the end of the year. At this dance an All-Around-Girl shall be honored. This girl will have four attendants. She must be a girl that participates in all sports and has good sportsmanship in everything.
